Draft of paragraph to insert in the document to be sent to parents:

Ethics and Religious culture (Éthique et culture religieuse) is a course taught in all elementary and high schools in Quebec. The aim of the subject is to adopt a descriptive approach to the religious heritage of Quebec. The program's twin paramount principles are: 1) Recognition of others and 2) Pursuit of the Common Good. The ERC course will also promote a “culture of dialogue” among students. It is a program that offers students, from all backgrounds, the tools necessary to better comprehend our society and its cultural and religious heritage.
